THE SOCIAL UN-NETWORKING

1. Who is the requesting and the responding party?

Lukas Mattson's ThreadIt is the Requesting party, while the Roy Twins are the Responding Party.

2. In what capacity did Mattson join SpreadIt? Was there any oral agreement?

Mattson did not actively join SpreadIt. He had agreed to work with the twins on their idea.

3. Why did the progress on the project of Twins stall? Did Matsson play a role in it?

The progress stalled due to Mattsons' unresponsiveness and evasiveness.

4. Who is Logan Huntzberger, and what was his contribution and role?

He is the business partner of the Roy Twins, his role includes but is not limited to representing the Roy Twins at the negotiation.

5. Did Matsson have a stake in SpreadIt or was he an employee?

Not relevant.

6. Does Logan Huntzberger want a stake in ThreadIt?

Not relevant.

7. When were the codes shared with Lukas Mattson?

All app related information was shared with Lukas Mattson prior to him being unresponsive.

8. Is there any concrete evidence of copying such as emails, messages, or records that shows Matsson used SpreadIt's materials?

The core functionality, features and model of ThreadIt are similar to the features of SpreadIt.

9. How was this valuation of $15 Billion or 5% Stake determined? Are they assuming a percentage of ThreadIt's market value purely based on their initial idea?

The figures are what the Roy Twins claim as compensation, based on ThreadIt's market value and success.

10. Did Matsson actively lead the twins to believe he was working on ThreadIt on top of his unresponsiveness?

Mattson was unresponsive and evasive. The series of events are in line with when the twins shared the information of SpreadIt with him.
